Dear Partner,

Greetings from the Quality Council of India (QCI)!

As the festival of lights approaches, all of us at 1QCI take a moment to wish you and your loved ones joy, health, and prosperity. Diwali is a time of new beginnings, of celebrating the triumph of light over darkness, and of strengthening the bonds that hold us together.

We are deeply grateful for the trust and partnership you have extended to us over the years. Your support has been an important part of our journey, and we look forward to walking ahead together with the same spirit of collaboration and purpose.

At the same time, we would like to gently reiterate our long-standing 'No Gifts' policy. The greatest gift for us is the continued goodwill and trust we share with our partners.

May this Diwali bring warmth and happiness to your home, and may the year ahead be filled with peace, success, and fulfilment.

With our warmest wishes from 1QCI Family,

Thanking you,

Sincerely yours,

(Dr. Atul Mohan Kochhar)
